THE SECOND CHURCH OF CHRIST
Marshfield, Massachusetts
Baptisms by the Rev. Elijah Leonard, 1789-1848
by Barbara Lambert Merrick

The original records of The Second Church of Christ in Marshfield, Mass., are missing. While serving as the Historian of the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants, I noted an old notebook in the George Ernest Bowman Collection, which I recognized as containing entries pertaining to people from Marshfield, Mass. This notebook was apparently the work of Mr. I. H. Hatch of Marshfield and the entries were arranged in alphabetical order by families.

In attempting to verify the data in the notebook, I was informed by Jan Peterson, a resident of Marshfield (now a genealogical researcher at the General Society of Mayflower Descendants in Plymouth, Mass.), that the Marshfield Historical Society also had a copy of the records of the Second Church of Marshfield. Examination of their copy of the records found the entries to be in chronological order.

The first section of these church records, representing the work of Baptisms performed by the Reverend Atherton Wales from 1739 to 1788, was published in The Mayflower Quarterly, Volume 46, page 128, edited by Elizabeth Pearson White of Illinois in 1980. Its publication extended knowledge of the Marshfield vital records, as much of the information presented was missing from Marshfield Mass., Vital Records To 1850, published in 1969, by Robert M. and Ruth W. Sherman.

The following presentation pertains to the record of work performed by the Reverend Elijah Leonard. The notebook copy, believed to be the work of I. H. Hatch, contained entries from 1789 to 1848. The Historical Society copy supplemented the notebook copy in that it contained additional entries for 1851 through 1878 and included some differences in the entry of names and dates. These differences are in brackets.

JOSEPH AND HANNAH (CLARK) COBB OF MIDDLEBOROUGH, MASS., AND FALMOUTH, MAINE

by Elizabeth Pearson White and Edwin Wagner Coles

By 1715 the population of Plymouth Colony had increased to such an extent that many of the grandchildren of the first Plymouth Colony settlers felt it had become too crowded. They wanted to move to the frontier of civilization to obtain free grants of land. At the very least they wanted cheaper land so they could marry and build a home for themselves and their young families. Many of them, like Joseph Cobb and his brothers, went "down east" from Middleborough and Plymouth and Barnstable to the District of York, or York County, the early names for the area that is now (became Maine in 1820) Maine. It was called "down east" because the prevailing winds along the seacoast of New England come from the west, and sailing northeast along the coast to Falmouth was usually "down wind" from Plymouth. Joseph Cobb, the subject of this article, was one of those venturesome settlers.

JOSEPH COBB, son of Jonathan<sup>2</sup> (Henry<sup>1</sup> Cobb) and Hope<sup>3</sup> (Hope<sup>2</sup> [Chipman] John<sup>1</sup> Howland) (Huckins) Cobb, was born in Barnstable, Mass., on 24 August 1690<sup>[1]</sup> and died between 3 May 1774 and 4 May 1786.<sup>[2]</sup> Joseph married HANNAH CLARK in Plymouth, Mass., on 5 July 1716.<sup>[3]</sup> Hannah, daughter of William and Abiah (Wilder) Clark, was born in Plymouth on 2 August 1697<sup>[4]</sup> and died likely before 6 March 1770.<sup>[5]</sup>

Joseph moved from Barnstable to Middleborough with his parents before 1695 and spent his boyhood there. He and his wife Hannah spent the first years of their married life in Middleborough where their two children were born.<sup>[6]</sup> The History of Portland states that Joseph Cobb arrived in Falmouth, Me., with his brothers, Jonathan and Ebenezer, in 1717 or 1718, joining their oldest

CALCULATE A BIRTH DATE FROM A GRAVESTONE

This information comes from the Rhode Island Genealogical Society Newsletter that credits the Boulder Genealogical Society Newsletter that in turn credits the Platte County, Mo., Historical / Genealogical Society.

The magic number to remember is 8870. Given a date from a gravestone of May 6, 1889, age 71 years, 7 months, & 9 days. Compute the date as follows:

Death date	18890506
Subtract age at death	- 710709
	18179797
Subtract the "magic" number	- 8870
	18170927
Year 1817, Month 9, Day 27 or 27 September 1817!

PLYMOUTH COUNTY, MASSACHUSETTS, WARNINGS OUT

Abstracted by Alicia Crane Williams

Abstracted from Plymouth Court Records 1686-1859, edited by David Thomas Konig, published in association with the Pilgrim Society in 1978. Warnings out were usually issued by the selectmen of a town against persons who had moved into town without means of support. The warnings were legal devices intended to protect the town against having to provide welfare support for these people. The fact that a person was warned to depart the town does not mean that he or she left. The warning was meant to inform them the town would not come to their aid. In practical use, the towns (and churches) would contribute support for widows, orphans, and others who could not support themselves, when no other alternative was available.

The volume and page number from the Konig publication are given in the left column, followed by the town issuing the warning. The date the warnings were given by the town constables follows the names and descriptions of those warned. In some cases where the warning date is not known, the date the warrant was issued to the constable, or the date of the court at which the warnings were recorded is given. It should be remembered that Konig's publication is a secondary transcription, itself, and that errors in translation of names or other typographical mistakes may have been made. The original court books are in the possession of the Pilgrim Society, 75 Court Street, Plymouth, MA 02361.

JABEZ FITCH DIARY

14 FEBRUARY 1784 TO 17 MAY 1784

transcribed by Carol Tucker Gadbois and George S. Gadbois

Diery No. 12 Norwich

Sund: y<sup>e</sup> 15th I Examin'd my old Diery for y<sup>e</sup> Year 1776 alittle, with other Reading &c: In y<sup>e</sup> Evening we had considerable Compy among whom was Master Robenson & Mr. Berstow by whom I am inform'd y<sup>t</sup> Truelove Brewster is Return'd home & Informs y<sup>t</sup> Jocky Danll Brewster is Dead.

Mond: y<sup>e</sup> 16th is a clear cold Day; In y<sup>e</sup> Morning Mr. Giddings was here; Darius & Perkins went to work with him at geting Bridge Timber; & Dilla would have also gone with him, but was prevented by being accidentally Scalded this Morning. At about 10 oClock I set off to go to Town: I crost y<sup>e</sup> River on y<sup>e</sup> Ice, & made some stop at John Yongs, & then went up as far as Esqr Ben: Huntingtons where I was Detain'd a long time on several kinds of Business; I then Luckily lit of a Ride in a Slaw to y<sup>e</sup> Landing, but made some Stop at y<sup>e</sup> Jail on some business with John Young, who is now in Prison; I was Detain'd at y<sup>e</sup> Landing on some Business while in y<sup>e</sup> Evening, & finally put up at Cheneys where I was agreeably Entertained with Capt: Carew & some others telling Storys &c. The Night is Extream Cold.

Tuesd: y<sup>e</sup> 17th I came home Early in y<sup>e</sup> morning, found y<sup>e</sup> Boys going to work on y<sup>e</sup> Bridge Timber again. In y<sup>e</sup> Afternoon we had some Women Visitors, & in y<sup>e</sup> Evening I was over at Love Brewsters to Assist in y<sup>e</sup> Settlement of y<sup>e</sup> Bargain between him & Newton, there considerable Compy there &c.

Wednesd: y<sup>e</sup> 18th After Breakfast y<sup>e</sup> Boys went to work on y<sup>e</sup> Bridge Timber again; I went over to Love Brewsters again, made a Settlement with him, & see him move off with his Family for Williams Town; Alittle afternoon I fasten'd up y<sup>e</sup> House where Brewster had liv'd & then came home; after which Wilson & I Sleded some Wood from y<sup>e</sup> other side of ye Bogmeddow.

BERKLEY, MASS., VITAL RECORDS, BOOK 1

by Scott Andrew Bartley

The small town of Berkley is located along the eastern border of Bristol County, just south of Taunton. The town was created from parts of Taunton and Dighton on 18 April 1735. There were minor border changes with both parent towns in 1799, 1810, 1842, and 1879. The town records have not been microfilmed by the Church of Jesus Christ Latter-Day Saints. The records have been microfiched by Jay Mack Holbrook as "Massachusetts Vital Records: Berkley, 1670-1900" (Oxford, Mass., 1991) containing eight volumes in 32 fiche.

The first half of Book 1 is abstracted here. The book, "Berkley Town Records, 1735-1768," includes the usual town meeting minutes, jurors, notices, etc. The vital records have been entered throughout the volume in no particular order. The earliest record is from 1693, long before the creation of the town. The book is covered by fiche #1 to 5. The first two fiche do not contain any vital records.

The originals were not available to proof the entries that were too faint to read well on the fiche. There was a book of abstracts made in 1894 by order of the selectmen entitled "Town of Berkley, Mass, Records, Births, Marriages, Deaths, 1735-1894" measuring 8½ by 14 inches found at the Old Colony Historical Society Library in Taunton. That library can be reached at 508-822-1622 for hours and location.

This abstract volume includes data from the town books 1-3 and A-B covering 1735-1860; Book 1 of the Congregational Church Records, 1736-1781 kept by Rev. Samuel Tobey; a "register" of town records, 1860-1895; and "Extracts from Elijah Briggs Diary, Books 1 & 2" covering 1696-1791 (bulk 1770-1791). Cemetery inscriptions were added at the end. Each original volume constitutes a separate section in the book. Each section is arranged alphabetically and references the page in the original book, the name, parents, and date of event. It was from this that the names were verified in the faint parts of the fiche copy. There were only three entries from pages 182, 189, and 190 that could not be read and also seem not to be included in the abstract volume.

Each entry is transcribed fully and verbatim. The format of each entry closely follows the original. Some formatting changes were made to make the data readable.
