RECORDS OF THE SOUTH CHURCH
 OF PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

Communicated by Rev. ALFRED GOODING, A.B., S.T.B., of Portsmouth, N. H.

THE records of baptisms and admissions in the South Church of Portsmouth, N. H., begin in 1714, with the ministry of Rev. John Emerson; but entries of marriages and funerals are not found in the church books until the beginning of the ministry of Rev. Samuel Haven, in 1752. In this article the genealogical information contained in these records has been arranged under the headings "Baptisms and Admissions," "Marriages," and "Funerals," the entries made in the ministry of Mr. Emerson appearing first and those made in the later ministries following in proper sequence. Under each of the three headings the surnames have been placed in alphabetical order, and under each surname the Christian names have been likewise arranged alphabetically. In the sections headed "Baptisms and Admissions" the word "baptized" is to be supplied in each entry, unless another word or phrase is given. Dates have been printed in uniform style, with the usual abbreviations for the names of the months.
