Sarah Pantier	}
against	{	Before J. T. Raby J. P.
Will Sellars	}

Upon the oath of Sarah Pantair [yes, two different spellings] setting forth that she is with child, which child when born will be a bastard and that Will Sellars is the father of said child contrary to the laws of North Carolina. The defendant appeared in court and the following proceedings had: The defendant admits the paternity of the child and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that an adjustment of the matter has been made between the parties to the satisfaction of the said Sarah Pantier and that by agreement the said Will Sellars is to pay the matter of the child for its Maintenance the sum of twenty five dollars, which sum shall be a settlement in full of the claims the said Sarah Pantier may have against the said Will Sellars now Therefore he is adjudged by the Court that the said Will Sellars is the father of the child of the said Sarah Pantier and that an allowance of twenty five dollars paid as above setforth is sufficient and the same is hereby adjudged to be paid to the said Sarah Pantier for the mantainance of said child. It is further adjudged that the said Will Sellars pay a fine of one dollar ($1⁰⁰) and the cost of this action. This Oct 3, 1904 J. T. Raby J.P.

Received of Will Sellars twenty five dollars $25⁰⁰ for Sarah Pantier.
Cost and fine of this action paid J. T. Raby J.P.

We learned several interesting things from these bonds. The amount of the bond varied from year to year. The child was named in the first one, and in many of the others from Macon County, just not in any more of my relatives' bonds. In one the child had to be cared for until the age of 12. None of them mentioned that the child would be bound out at the age of three. The last of the bastardy bonds for Macon County was in the year 1904. It was really interesting reading through these bonds, especially when you found one that named the child. If only those had been mine!

Song Ballad

March the 27 } 1892

Young people all I pray draw near
Attend a while and you shall hear
How sin and satan did agree
To land my soul in misery

Full eighteen years around did roll
Before I thought of my poor soul
With trembling horror now I tell
I danced upon the brink of hell

That pleasing sin called __ mirth
Leads thousands souls to endless death
And but for gods resistless grace
I long ere now had reached that place

I oft in times to church did go
My beauty and ---- (word faded) there to show
About my soul I took no thought
Though Jesus had it dearly bought

At length I heard the gospel preached
The words my calious bosom reached
You must says Christ be born again
If you to Heaven would ever attain

In solom watches of the night
I roved in secret where I might
Upon my knees pour'd out my grief
And prayed to god for some relief.

My uncle said don't look so dull
Come go with me to yonder ball
In silk and sattan you shall shine
And be the heir of all that was mine

8

Dear unkle that will never do
It only would increase my wo[e]
Come help me mourn my reched case
I am lost undone with out free grace

Now since you are resolved to turn
And after silly bablers run
None of my portion you shall have
I will it to some other give

The end. Wrote by Kansas Henry

Song Ballad of Naaman

There was Naaman the leper that Honerable man the Captain of syrans host
He was badly afflicted and sick in the land
A burden to all on the coast
Oh my what a desease made him white
No Doctor could help him he learned
For they never did pray and handnt no way
Way to get in that beautiful stream

Chorus

Go and wash in that beautiful stream
Go and wash in that beautiful stream
Oh Namaan Oh Naaman Go down and wash go wash in that Beautiful Stream

But he heard of a man in the Hebrews land
A little Maid told him about
I will go if I can he said to his friends for he can ever releave me no doubt
So he went and he called on the profit of god
But Elisha refused to be seen
But he lifted his burden and sent him to Jordan to wash in that beautiful stream

Chorus

So Naaman went on when the servant had gone
Whom Elisha had sent to his door
For he couldn't believe that he had received from The prophet so perfect a case he thought that
The rivers down in his own land were better
Because they were clean
It was just about night when he got in the light
As he jumped in that beautiful stream

Chorus

Now sinner poor sinner why are you the same
As Naaman the noted Syrene
Yor sickness doth linger both body and soul
It makes you fell lonesome and meane
If you feel your lost now take up your cross
And Jesus will wash you clean.
If you feel your sick come along
And plunge in that Beautiful stream.

Chorus

Echoes of the Past

These items are from issues of the Franklin Press of 110 years ago – 1896 (the issues of 1906 were destroyed by fire and are not available.) We hope our readers enjoy these glimpses into Macon's everyday life in the past. If anyone has clippings from or copies of the Press from 1906, we would sincerely appreciate these being shared with us for publication in future issues of Echoes.

Echoes

On Monday, Feb 24th, Mr. W. F. Manney had the misfortune to have his dwelling burned at Robbinsville. He saved part of his household goods. - Cherokee Scout

A lady on hangingdog subscribed fifty cents to home missions at the recent meeting here, an account of which appears elsewhere in the paper. Last Wednesday she walked to town and sold enough butter to pay it and walked back home, a distance of almost twelve mile. This is what we would term the true spirit of Christianity. - Cherokee Scout

Our citizens are grieved at the loss by fire Monday night of last week of the saw mill, large barn containing feed, eleven head of horses and mules, one cow and calf, all belonging to the Willard Colony at the old Thrash farm. A high wind was blowing at the time and the inflammable material burned so rapidly that it was impossible to save the stock, and they were roasted alive. The loss will reach between $3,000 and $4,000, with no insurance. We are satisfied that our people are anxious to see them succeed and prosper. - Cherokee Scout.

Lively times at Mr. W. W. Rhinehart's. There were born to the house of Rhinehart, Feb. 29th, twins – that may make voters. Will is as "happy as a clam at high tide." But it is hard on the little tots that will have no birthday for eight years, and after that only once in four years. - Webster Herald

The election on the stock law called March 5 has been postponed April 7th 1896 with J. R. Edwards and Sam B. Gibson to act as Judges and G. L. Tabor as Registrar to hold said elections.

Shff. Teague and Capt E. Everett returned Monday from Maryville, Tenn. with Mat Rose, being one of the three charged with stabbing the Indian, Wilnota, who are all now in jail here to await the next term of our Superior Court. - Bryson City Times
