The following is a transcription of the gravestones of Peavine Cemetery, which is sometimes called Hendershot Cemetery. It is located on Township Road #106 along Peavine Creek in the southeastern portion of Washington Township. The road to this cemetery is in poor condition and should only be traveled in good weather. The cemetery itself is in reasonably good condition considering its location. Many of those buried here are either children or grandchildren of Daniel Boone Hendershot and his wife, Mary (Brewer) Hendershot. Daniel & Mary had sixteen children.

Spiga Farm Cemetery

aka Gilham Family Cemetery

This cemetery is located in Union Township, Belmont County just off State Route 149 approximately 2.4 miles north of U.S. 40. When traveling north on S.R. 149, you'll see a narrow farm lane to the east just before S.R. 149 goes over a railroad tunnel for the old B&O Railroad lines. Once you know where to look you can see the tombstones from the state road. The cemetery is about 30 feet down the farm lane in a small grove of trees. Many of the tombstones are broken and/or illegible. They are strewn over the ground and lying in weeds. This cemetery was transcribed by Jean Craig and Bud Craig on 7 Sept. 2002.
