The following cemetery records are from Ebenezer Cemetery at Aberdeen, Ohio, and Hamersville Cemetery, Hamersville, Ohio. Both Aberdeen and Hamersville are in Brown County, Ohio. These records have been chosen because of the volumes of people who passed through Brown County in migrating West. Mrs. Helen Blumhagen, 1204 Deseret Building, Salt Lake City, Utah has indexed the Brown County cemetery records, and has given permission to THE FAMILY TREE to reprint them.

BOOK REVIEWS

AMERICAN AND BRITISH GENEALOGY AND HERALDRY: P. William Filby, Compiler. Published by the American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, Ill. 60611. 1970. Hardback, 184 pages, indexed. Price $10.00. Mr. Filby's new book has been eagerly awaited by genealogist, and will certainly not disappoint them. It provides invaluable help in finding reliable sources of information, and will become a valuable guide in family research. Approximately 1800 entries cover Colonial and pre-Colonial America, every state (with the exception of Alaska), the District of Columbia, England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales. It includes the most recent as well as the earliest source books, with many being reprints of difficult-to-obtain references. It is our opinion that every genealogist, amateur or professional, should have this book on their reference shelf.

THE JONATHAN COLLINS FAMILY AND DESCENDANTS: Ruby Collins Markland. 933 So. Wolcott, Casper, Wyoming 82601. Published by J. Grant Stevenson, 230 West 1230 North, Provo, Utah 84601. Hardback, 236 pages, indexed, illustrated. Price $12.50.

Mrs. Markland's book begins with Jonathan Collins, in Pennsylvania in 1738, and covers descendants in Pennsylvania, Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, and Points West. Mrs. Markland mentions having taken a course in writing, and her very well-written book is proof of the success of this course. The allied families include Adams, Cook, Cowan, Eidson, Hodges, Mitchell, Montgomery, Ray, Snedigar, and others.

THE GENEALOGY OF REV. W.H. VAN DEUSEN: Cherry Laura Van Deusen Pratt. R.R. 1, Box 2, Terrace Drive, Ft. Recovery, Ohio 45846. Published by The Rockford Press, Rockford, Ohio. Hardback, 83 pages, indexed and illustrated. Price $7.50.

Mrs. Pratt's book contains much interesting history of the Van Deusen family. It is obvious that she has done extensive research in preparation for her book. Allied families include Custer, Hendrickson, Belton, Chelf, Evans and Stayton. Several blank pages are included in the back of the book, for the addition of information and records by family members.
