GALLIA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Huntington Township is the extreme northwestern township of Gallia County. It contains thirty-six sections. It was formed from Raccoon Township on June 5, 1810 and organized June 2, 1812. The first election was held at the house of Stephen Holcomb in July 1810. About eighteen votes were cast; the voters were Stephen Holcomb, Phillip Shintaffer, John Robinson, George Tyler, Isaac Tyler, William Glenn, Joseph Knight, William Ewing, Enoch McNeal, William Burnett, Benjamin Mills, William Woods, William Haux, Matthew Edmonson, Hugh Poor, William Traylor, Thomas Ewing and Samuel R. Holcomb.

The first settlement was on Raccoon Creek near Vinton. The first cabin was built by Joseph McKnight although George Tyler is said to be the first settler. The first child born in the township was John, son of David and Elizabeth McCarley Daniels; the first wedding was that of James Glenn and wife in 1811.

The first grist mill was erected by Enoch McNeal about 1815; it was built of logs and had one run of small stones used for corn only. Its location was on Big Raccoon Creek. In 1819 Stephen and Samuel R. Holcomb erected the first saw mill for John Adney at Vinton. Mr. Adney ran it for a number of years and then sold it to James McGhee.

In 1806 Ezra Barker taught a school of ten scholars in a little log cabin about one and one-half miles southwest of Vinton. By 1882 there were twelve school houses with a fair attendance at each.

By 1882 there were four post offices--Vinton (the first), established in 1835, Ewington, Alice and Chestnut Grove.

In 1811 there was preaching in section twenty-four. The Halcyon church society was formed in 1812 with Rev. Able M. Sargeant as pastor. Original members included Matthias Gray and Christina Roop. By 1882 there were these churches: Methodist Episcopal at Ewington established about 1856 with Rev. Jacob Hathaway as pastor in 1882; the Baptist at Ewington; the Free Will Baptists in the Brush settlement established in 1873; the Christina church with Rev. Jacob Smith as pastor in 1882; the colored Free Will Baptists on Little Raccoon with Rev. Thomas Ferguson as pastor; and the Christian Antioch church in 1877 with Rev. Joseph Sprague as pastor in 1882. In 1819 the citizens organized a Sabbath school with all denominations uniting. In 1830 James Glenn organized a Presbyterian Sabbath-school.

William Glenn and Samuel R. Holcomb owned the first two yokes of oxen brought into the township. Mr. Holcomb also built the first frame barn and owned the first two-horse wagon; Samuel Peden raised the first wheat crop. The crop failed due to mildew.

Abel M. Sargeant surveyed the bottom land east of Temple Hill and laid it into city lots, many of which he sold. He gave it the name of "Leafyenia".

Joseph Fletcher first surveyed the township and William Glenn made the first purchase of land.

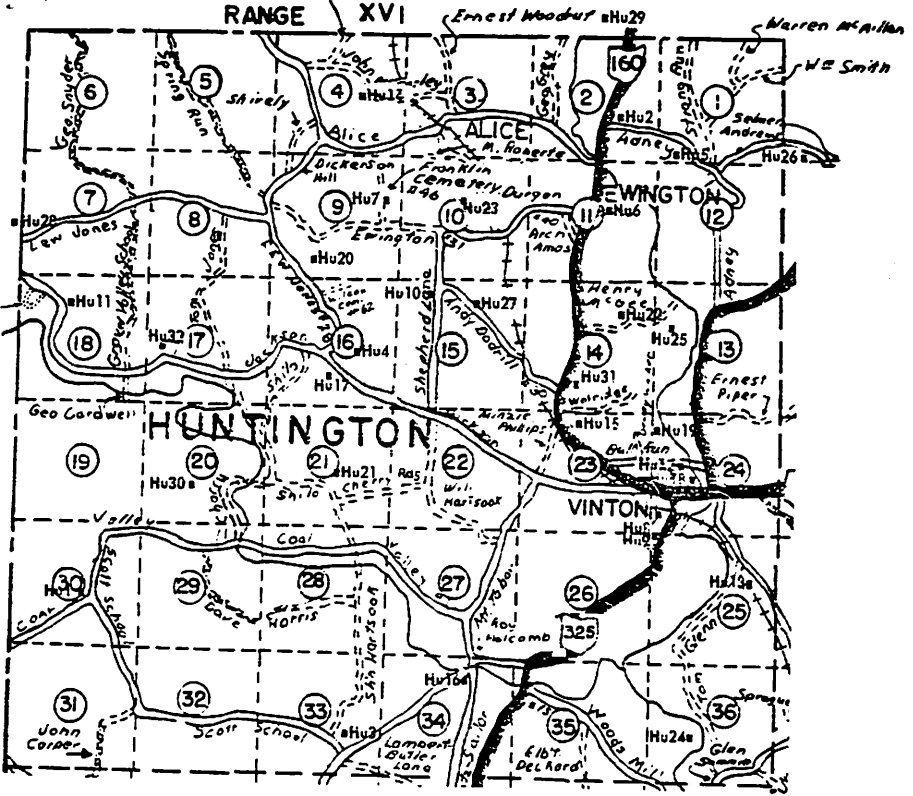

Vinton village was laid out in 1832 by Samuel R. Holcomb; it was located on the Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo Railroad about sixteen miles northwest of Gallipolis. By 1882 there were two stores, two hotels, a flour mill, a factory for carding and spinning wool and a Methodist Episcopal church.

Ewington village is about two and one-half miles north of Vinton. It was laid out in 1852 by George Ewing. In 1866 a salt well was discovered there which contained gas, salt and iron and it became a great curiosity especially as the water was considered to have great medical properties. The Ewington Free-Will Baptist Church was organized December 5, 1870 with a council of Rev. J. W. Martin and T. E. Peden. Pastors have been T. E. Peden, B. V. Tewksbury, S. J. Weed, R. M. Cloud and M. L. Huntley.

The Huntington Free-Will Baptist Church was organized in 1851 by Rev. I. Z. Haning. Early pastors were Revs. I. Z. Haning, B. V. Tewksbury, J. M. Kayser, J. W. Martin, S. J. Weed, W. J. Fulton and T. E. Peden. The Second Huntington Free-Will Baptist Church was instituted in 1867 by T. E. Peden, A. Huntley and A. Holcomb. Early pastors included T. E. Peden, J. W. Stewart, J. Sherrett and T. J. Ferguson. Mt. Tabor Free-Will Baptist Church was organized by Prof. J. M. Davis, T. E. Peden and M. L. Huntley in 1882.

The above information is taken from Hardesty's History of Gallia County published in 1882.

GALLIA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

This census of cemeteries of Raccoon Township was made by the Gallia County Historical Society Genealogy Committee. The purpose of this census is to preserve the wealth of local history on the stones for future genealogists and historians. This is the sixth of a set of fifteen books planned to cover the entire county by individual township.

We have tried to be as accurate as possible, but many stones are in poor condition making it impossible to avoid some errors. In some listings we have underscored information to show that there was some question as to the word or letters that are underscored. Example John Brown, Aug. 13, 1878 would mean that the "ow" in Brown was not clear and the "3" in 13 could possibly be an 8 or 5 too worn to read. In each case we have given the best reading possible.

The following abbreviations have been used:

- s/o - son of
- d/o - daughter of
- w/o - wife of
- b. - born
- d. - died
- nd. - no date given

We would like to thank all the people who helped in copying this township.

Mrs. Richard James
Chairman, Genealogy Committee
Gallia County Historical Society
November 1979

Mr. Thomas S. Moulton
President

Raccoon Township was laid out March 24, 1805, and finally organized June 12, 1812. It contains thirty-six full sections. It is bounded on the north by Huntington Township, on the east by Springfield Township, on the south by Perry Township, and on the west by Jackson County.

The first election was held at the house of Adam Rickabaugh on the third Monday in April, 1805. Among the first settlers were Henry and John Rickabaugh who came in 1800; David Ridgeway, 1803; Adam Rickabaugh, Patrick Reed, and Nehemiah Woods, 1805; W. M. Wood, 1805; William Ridgeway, 1804; Elnathan Barlow, 1803; Harrison Wood, 1805; William Steel, senior and junior, 1815; Jane Ridgeway, 1817; and Rufus Jacobs, 1819.

The first settlement was made on section one. In 1803 James Burford and Isaac Tyler settled and built a cabin on the banks of Big Raccoon Creek. Daniel Boone, James Burford, and Col. Robert Safford came together as early as 1792 and trapped for two years during which time they caught one hundred bears in the neighborhood of Adamsville. When Boone parted from Safford, he left him with his traps and other articles which were in 1882 in the hands of the family of Cameron Safford.

In 1803 Adam Rickabaugh build a grist mill on the bank of the Big Raccoon in section 26. In 1805 Nehemiah Wood purchased this mill and attached to it a saw mill and also a carding and fulling mill for dressing cloth.

School was taught by a Mr. Monday. By 1882 there were fifteen school buildings. Nehemiah Woods was postmaster of the Woods Mills post office at Adamsville. Later there were Thurman, Rio Grande, Harris and Lycoon post offices. Religious services were held at the house of Adam Rickabaugh.

The first Welsh immigrants came to Gallipolis in 1818 and soon after settled near the village of Centerville.

Centerville is located in section 19; it was laid out May 6, 1835 by Reuben Rambo and Timothy Jones. William Preston acted as surveyor. John McColester was the first mayor. The New Zion Methodist Episcopal Church was organized October 12, 1820 by the Rev. James Gilruth. Thomas Buck was the appointed class leader. The names of the first members of the society were Thomas Buck, Nathan Perkins, Sallie Perkins, Barbary Hepingstall, Jane Buck, William Williams, Abraham Spencer, Susan Smith, and William Cherrington. The society worshipped in house of Thomas Buck until when in 1832 the church was erected. Thomas Buck, Evan Evans, and Josiah Cherrington were appointed trustees. A new church was erected in 1867.

Adamsville was laid out by Adam and William Rickabaugh on November 20, 1837 and has never been incorporated.

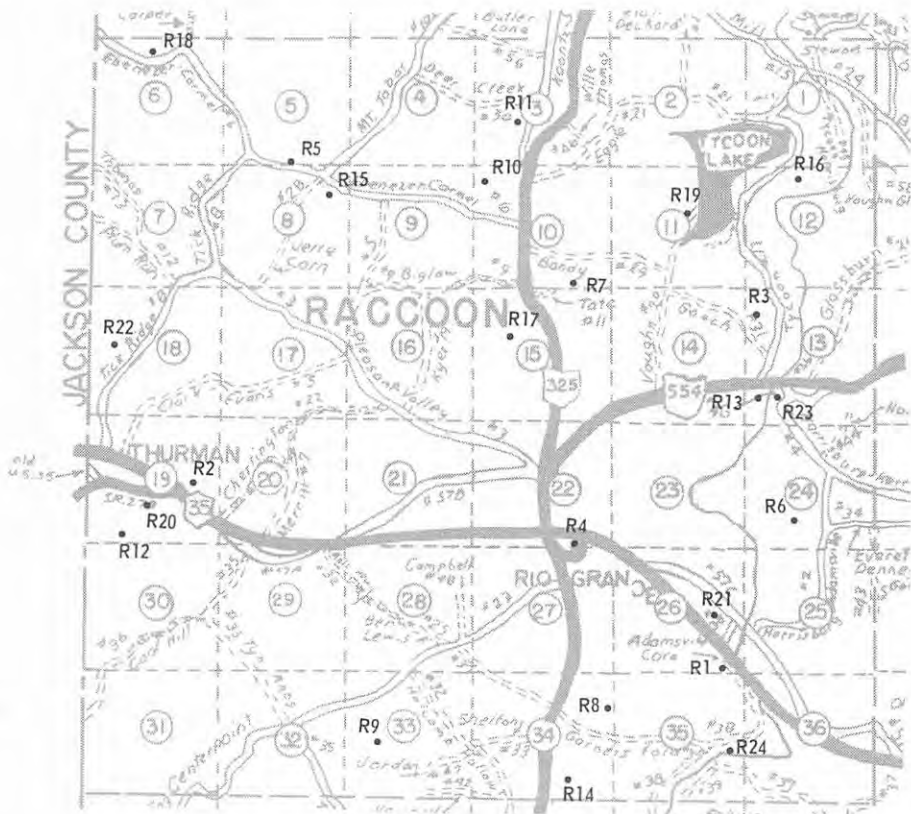

Harrisburg was laid out in 1837 by Samuel McCarley and Charles Tappin. Joseph Fletcher was county surveyor and it has never been incorporated.

Harrisburg Free-Will Baptist Church was begun April 4, 1862 with a council of Rev. H. J. Carr, J. Sherritt, Samuel T. Koons, J. C. Nye, and R. P. Porter. Gilboa Free-Will Baptist Church was begun in 1882 with a council of Rev. R. M. Cloud, O. H. Denney, and T. E. Peden.

Rio Grande Village is the home of Rio Grande College founded by Deacon Nehemiah Atwood and his wife Permelia Atwood. The main building was erected in 1875.

The Free-Will Baptist Church at Rio Grande was organized in 1850.

The above history is taken from Hardesty's History of Gallia County printed in 1882.

CHILDERS CEMETERY

Located in Section 33 of Raccoon Township on the west side of Cherry Ridge Road on property now owned by Paul Wagner. The cemetery is about one-half mile southeast of Wagner's home in a wooded area. The cemetery is overgrown with several cedar trees spaced throughout. The only apparent reason for the name of Childers is that Childers at one time owned the property. Directed by William G. Dutiel and Dene Wagner. Copied June 27, 1979 by Charles Murray and Henrietta Evans. There appeared to be quite a few unmarked graves which are only sunken areas at present.

One grave which was covered with a sandstone slab had been overturned and it is said that grave robbers have robbed the grave some years ago. At one time there was a Gilboa Church located here. The cemetery is overgrown with broom sage and is not well taken care of. Many monuments are overturned. The old road which went from Rio Grande to Vinton went by the cemetery but is now overgrown with trees.
