CLARENCE SPROUL (1913 - 2004)

Clarence G. Sproul, Jr., passed away on Saturday, October 16, 2004, in Albuquerque NM. Clarence was born in Fork Ridge TN on Jan. 23, 1913, to Clarence G. Sproul, Sr., and Esta Imes Sproul. His mother passed away from typhoid fever when Clarence Jr was only nine months old; he was sent to be raised by his maternal grandparents, Harrison D. and Martha Imes. His sister, Evelyn Sproul, was sent to live with her paternal grandparents. Clarence was raised in Wellston OH, where he had many fond memories of delivering newspapers from his bicycle, sneaking under the ballpark fence to attend games, playing in the summer with his cousin, Gene Imes, and playing basketball for Wellston High School. After high school, he played basketball for the Wellston Merchants. It was through the basketball league that he met Claudine Hudson of Wellston, and they married Aug. 7, 1933. He worked for Denver Lewis' Trucking Company in Wellston, Williams Shoe Company in Portsmouth OH, and Superior Die and Tool in Columbus OH. He was then recruited to work on the Manhattan Project in Los Alamos NM. He drove cross-country through several snow and ice storms and reported to the Los Alamos office, Santa Fe, the first workday of January, 1945. After completion of the Los Alamos contract in July 1945, Claudine came west on a troop train to Lamy NM with their three small children: David, Jane and Jeff. Clarence and the family moved to Albuquerque, where he had several small jobs before the University of California (now Sandia National Labs) hired him. He retired from Sandia and spent more than twenty years traveling the U.S. with Claudine. Their grandchildren have fond memories of traveling with them. Clarence was a great story-teller and loved to share his life experiences, including endearing and humorous recollections of his years at Sandia Labs. Clarence is survived by his loving wife of seventy-one years, Claudine Sproul; half-sister Mary Dale Freeman; son David (Sue) Sproul; daughter Jane Bickelman; son Jeff (Mary) Sproul; grandchildren Kevin (Becky) Sproul, Chris (Pam) Sproul, Deborah Bickelman (Robert) Burns, Eric (Becky) Bickelman, Carol Bickelman (Rance) Boren, Sarah Sproul (Cisco) Cole, and Jeffrey Sproul. He has ten great-grandchildren and two on the way. Service was held at the Chester T. French Memorial Mausoleum Chapel, Sunset Memorial Park, 924 Menaul Blvd NE, Albuquerque NM, on Wednesday, Oct. 20, 2004, at 10 a.m., with Pastor Michael Brunk of Christ United Methodist Church officiating.

Above: A view of Jamestown Cemetery, looking south from across East Broadway Street. This photo was taken in November before the old oak tree (center) was severely pruned back. The tree, with a circumference of 22 feet, contained many dying limbs. Pruning was necessary to prevent future damage to tombstones beneath its limbs.

Apple Festival

For a third year, the Jackson County Chapter OGS joined with the Jackson Historical Society to man a booth at the 2005 Jackson Apple Festival, Tuesday through Saturday, Sept. 20-24, 2005. Chapter volunteers had available a number of Chapter publications including the new 1930 Census volumes completed to date, and the new reprint of the 1953 Coalton Sesquicentennial History. Newly created Chapter membership and publications list brochures also were developed as the Chapter focuses efforts to attract new members at the local level to help the organization increase activities and services for the benefit of all members.

District Meeting

The Jackson County Chapter OGS served as host chapter for the resumption of Athens District meetings. The first such district meeting was held Saturday, Oct. 1, in the Potter Room at the Jackson City Library. A second district meeting was held Saturday, Jan. 14 at the library, beginning at 9 a.m. Instrumental in resuming district meetings is Donald R. Clark of Proctorville, a member of the Lawrence County Chapter OGS, who in May was appointed to the OGS Board of Trustees to represent the Athens District, which includes Athens, Gallia, Jackson, Lawrence, Meigs and Vinton counties.

Plans are being formulated for a late October 2006 genealogy fest with guest speakers and vendors at a location yet to be decided.

The next district meeting is planned March 11, 2006, at the Jackson City Library.

Resource Guide

The Chapter has completed a new Resource Guide containing lots of information to assist researchers focusing on Jackson County.

Designed as a marketing tool in a handy newsletter format as a special edition of Poplar Row and targeted primarily for non-members, the resource guide includes maps showing changes in Jackson County boundaries between 1800-1855; listings for public offices, their addresses, phone numbers, e-mail addresses, and hours of service; similar listings for Jackson County's public libraries, museums and other historical sites or operations; listings for regional LDS Family History Centers; a wide selection of helpful web sites—ranging from those with free forms to Jackson County material, Ohio sites with useful information; and others.

The Resource Guide also contains a listing of addresses and phone numbers for all Ohio courthouses, a page listing the Jackson County Chapter's publications; and a membership information page.

Newsletter Exchange Policy

In the past, the Jackson County Chapter OGS has freely exchanged newsletters with other OGS chapters, out-of-state genealogical societies and historical societies.

Most reciprocate, and the chapter maintains a collection at the Jackson City Library. We thank you.
