PREFACE

The age and condition of the church books and sometimes indecipherable handwriting of the ministers have enhanced the possibility of error in transcription. The pastors at this time period sometimes used English lettering and sometimes German; thus, errors may occurred when the two are confused.

Regardless of these limitations, the genealogical value of these early records cannot be understated.

If you wish to read the actual records of the Trinity Lutheran Church a microfilm copy of the records is available at the Fairfield County District Library in Lancaster, Ohio. This copy was obtained by writing the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America Archives, 8765 West Higgins Rd., Chicago, IL 60631-4198. Rolls 940 and 936 contain information on this church. The Fairfield County District Library has only the roll pertaining to the early records.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We would like to thank the congregation of the Trinity Lutheran Church in Marcy, Ohio for allowing us to copy and publish these records. Additional thanks are given to Patty Peery and Carol Swinehart for transcribing these records from microfilm.

TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH
9980 Marcy Rd.
Ashville, Ohio

Straddling the Fairfield - Pickaway County line, west of Rockmill is the community of Marcy [mailing address Ashville], in which the Trinity Lutheran Church was organized in 1856 with Peter Eirech as the 1st minister. This church was built on land donated by Jacob Brobst who settled circa 1806 in Fairfield County Ohio. (Goslin, Crossroads & Fence Corners, Vol. II, p. 143). Many of the members of Trinity came from the Salem/Glick/Brick congregation, Bloom Twp., Fairfield Co., Oh.
