St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church Cemetery

Loretto, Cambria Co, Pennsylvania

Some Irish Names

Alice R. Rapp

About the year 1768, Captain Michael McGuire, a hero of the Revolutionary War and a noted trapper and hunter from Taneytown, Maryland, made a hunting camp in Cambria Co, Pennsylvania. He was quite impressed with the thick forests and when the land office was opened he was one of the first to settle in the territory. He built a mill first in 1845 (in what is now Patton, Pennsylvania), a second cabin in Asheville, Pennsylvania and in 1784 a cabin in Loretto, Pennsylvania. In 1788 his family joined him in what was then called McGuire's Settlement. Among the cabins that were built was one by his son in 1794 which is still standing. In 1799 Father Gallitzin (Prince Demetrius Augustine Gallitzin) built the only church between Lancaster, Pennsylvania and St. Louis, Missouri. The congregation consisted of forty families. The name Loretto was first recorded in 1816. A register in the church preserves the names of the first settlers and all of their descendants.
