PICKERING—PICKEREN. From across the seas comes the following: William and Ann Pickering were in Philadelphia in 1801. What is known of their family or antecedents? William joined Old St. George's Methodist Church, February 28, 1791. Ann followed March 16. William was a shipwright, born "in foreign parts," circa 1766-7. Ann, possibly a Davis, born circa 1771, also in foreign parts. Their son James was born in 1805, at Liverpool, where both parents died. No connection has been discovered between the foregoing and the James and Jane Pickering, communicants of Christ Church in 1791. Kindly forward information to Miss Emily Gertrude Pickering, 185 Stanmore Road, Stanmore, Sydney, New South Wales, Australia.

HUGHES. Those interested in Cape May families may note: Ellis Hughes of Catawissa Township, Northumberland County, Yeoman. Will dated September 20, 1798; proved August 28, 1800. Wife Mary. Son Uriah, land adjoining John Cheaser, Sen^r. containing one hundred and fifty nine acres. Three other sons Issacher, Theophilus and Ellis. Daughters Judith Foster and Philadelphia Lount each £20. Daughter Mary Cleaver £20, provided she outlives her present husband John Cleaver. Executors: Wife Mary and son Uriah. The widow Mary renounces. Witnesses: Hezekiah Boone, John Hughes, James Hughes, John William.—Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, Registry of Wills, 1779-81, Liber I, f. 229.

WELSH FAMILIES. "I am researching on the emigration of Welsh families to the United States between 1760 and 1860. Information greatly desired by M. F. Lloyd Prichard, University College, Bangor, North Wales."
