Providence Meeting House Cemetery is located in Perry Township, just off Route 711 between Red Lion and Perryopolis. It is a little difficult to find as there is no signage and no road leading into the cemetery. The Providence Meeting of the Society of Friends was established in 1789 and the ruins of the old stone meeting house are still standing near the middle of the cemetery.

*The marker next to Nancy Murphy's is missing, only the base remaining. The base is identical to Nancy's so, in all probability, it was the marker for her husband, John Murphy, who was born in 1786 and died in 1876. Nancy was the daughter of John Allen and Mary Patrick and the mother of Eliza Thistlethwaite who is buried beside Nancy.

Little Redstone Presbyterian Church Cemetery is located in Jefferson Township, just off the Old Brownsville Road between Brownsville and Fayette City. There are signs leading to the site and the cemetery is located in back of the church.

FAYETTE COUNTY NATIVE'S OBITUARY FROM DAILY HERALD, CHICAGO, IL, MARCH 20, 2005

Bell, Lorena H. "Rena," a 33-year resident of Wheaton

Memorial visitation for Lorena H. "Rena" Bell, 74, will be from 3 p.m. until the time of the memorial services at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, at the Williams-Kampp Funeral Home, 430 E. Roosevelt Road (one block east of Naperville Road), Wheaton. Interment will be private.

Born Sept. 1, 1930, in Uniontown, Pa., where she was also raised, she died Friday, March 18, 2005, at Central DuPage Hospital in Winfield.

She was a graduate of Waynesburg College in Waynesburg, Pa. She was active in a number of bridge clubs in the Wheaton area and the People's Center Food Pantry of Wheaton.

She is survived by her husband of 43 years, Thomas; son; granddaughter; and sisters, Mary Elizabeth Coughenour and Patricia Brown. Donations to the American Cancer Society appreciated. For information, (630) 668-0016.
