MINNEHAHA COUNTY NATURALIZATION RECORDS

Over the next few issues we will be listing the names of people receiving their final naturalization papers in Minnehaha County before 1900. This listing will include only a limited amount of the information that is available on the final papers. If you think that one of these people may be your ancestor you may contact the Sioux Valley Genealogical Society to obtain more information. You will need to contact the South Dakota State Archives, in Pierre, SD to obtain a copy of the official record.

See page 66 in the July 2002 issue of the Pioneer Pathfinder for more information on this project.

INFORMATION on
JACOB ROBERTSON'S ESTATE

In the summer of 1975 Evelyn Jacobson Maguire brought Verlyss Jacobson a box of papers that had been in her/Evelyn's mother's house. Her mother Minnie Jacobson had died the previous autumn. Minnie had been married to Verlyss' grandfather Peter Jacobson, a son of Jacob Robertson. Knowing Verlyss was interested in family history, Evelyn gave her the box. Verlyss looked at the papers over the years, put some in scrap books, shared them with a few relatives. Among the papers were three sheets from Norway in Norwegian. She knew they concerned Jacob Robertson's estate, but knew nothing more.

In March 2000 Verlyss finally had Marie Arlton of Lennox translate them. Why it took 25 years to satisfy her curiosity about what they said she has no idea.

Below is the translation of the letter:

"Nordfjordeid 17 oktober 1950.

Mr. Orris J. Jacobson.

Enclosed (I am) sending you some picture postcards from Norddfjordeid. I have marked with numbers the different places and written on the backside of the cards the names of the different houses. The house that your grandfather Jakob Robertson had here on the street is somewhat indistinct on the picture, the house was only a little cabin, and he sold that when he became ill (sickly) and moved out to Eid Old Peoples' Home.

The money that was (left) after your grandfather and (that) you, his grandchildren, have given to Eid Waterworks, I have presented to the Waterworks director and superintendent, Mayor Faushe, and I talked recently with the mayor about this and he'll send a receipt with thanks for the gift received from your brothers, there in America. The Waterworks, now, is almost ready and has come into most of the houses. Also, Peder Gjerde has received installed water, and homeowners are happy and contented. Because three weeks ago, a fire came in the local margarine factory, and for the first time the water works was used for extinguishing work and that was truly completely amazing. It cleared and saved the houses, that otherwise [would] have burned down if the water works had not been so effective.

With thanks and greetings to all your brothers from Ole Dybvik

Nordfjordeid, Norway"

The second document translates as follows:

"Herewith is the receipt for 478 crowns that the Nordfjordeid waterworks has received for Jakob Robertson residence by Orris J. Jakobsen, Lennox S. Dak, USA. The money is paid to the waterworks by Mr. Ole Dybvik, Nordfjordeid.

We thank heartily for this amount and it shall be utilized for the right purpose, Nordfjordeid waterworks.

Erling Fauske
Superintendent of the Nordfjordeid Waterworks

Oscar Dalseth
adm. director
in A/S Eids Privatebank"

The third document translates as follows:

"Enclosed is the following receipt from the superintendent in the Eid Waterworks, Mr. Mayor Faushe, and from Oscar Dalseth, Director in the A/S Eid Private Bank. Your heirs hereafter the deceased Jacob Robertson, will from this will see that the money, 478 crowns that you gave to the Eid Waterworks has been applied to that purpose that I, before, have written you about.

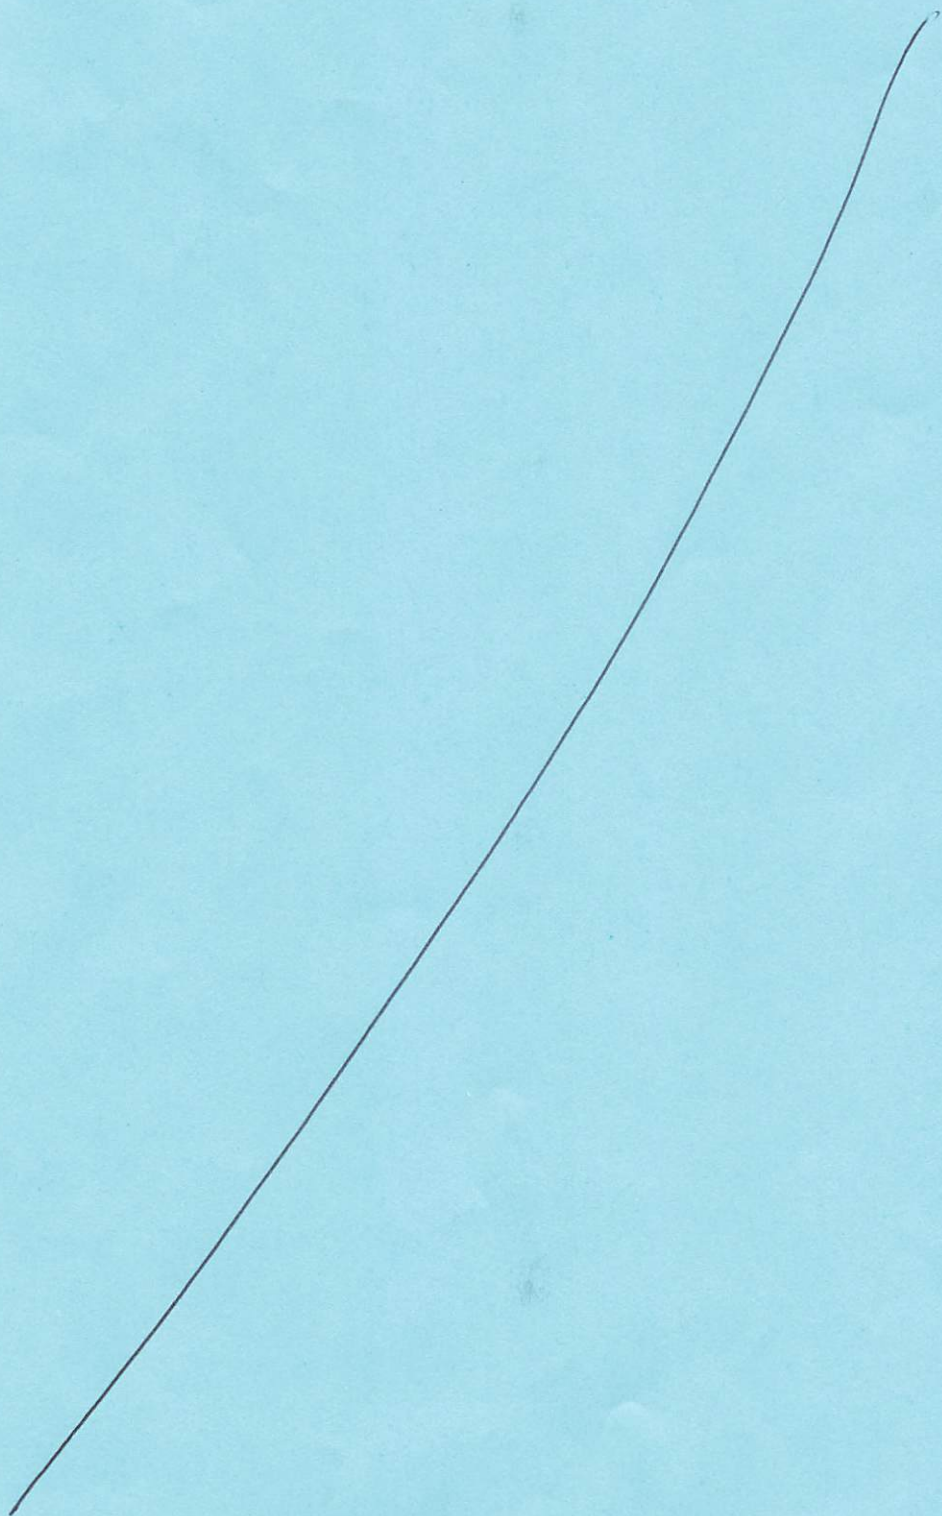

I will also personally bring you all my best thanks.

Nordfjordeid November 13, 1950
Ole Dybvik"

---Verlyss has the postcards mentioned in the letter. They are in her Jacobson/ Jensen/Haugen photo album.

---We do not know the dollar value of 478 crowns in 1950. Mrs Arlton was in Norway in 1948. At that time 4 crowns about equaled a dollar. It is hard for us to believe that $120 could put water into all the homes in a village or area of Bergen where Jacob Robertson lived.

---Why was Peder Gjerde mentioned? Verlyss recalls her dad's talking about a Gjerde [yair' duh] who visited the farm north of Lennox; perhaps the one in Norway was a relative as, she assumes, the one who visited the farm was.

Naturalization Records

My potential clients often inquire about Naturalization records. The following information presented here is taken from several National Archives sources and the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Old Records

The first naturalization law was passed March 26, 1790.

Naturalization was an option, not a requirement. Prior to 1906 naturalization records were seldom uniform from one court to another and from one era to another. Furthermore these records were created by many different courts and now may be housed in many different repositories.

While the rules for naturalization have changed, the basic format has generally been a two step process of "intent" followed by a final "petition", except for veterans of certain wars, who were allowed to do both at once. Minors residing here for five years prior to their 23rd birthday could also complete both steps at once between 1824 and 1906.

Naturalization records were not collected by one single entity. A person could "declare intent" in one court and file "petition for citizenship" in a different court. To add to the complexity various courts kept records of differing detail. Some declarations of intent may contain some genealogical data such as original country or place of birth. These records may not contain details about family members.

The courts holding naturalization records could be at the county, state or federal level. Children became citizens when their fathers did. Wives, until 1922, likewise became citizens when their husbands did. Further the names of wife and children may not be listed on either application. In general if you are not reasonably sure if, when and where a declaration might have been made, a search is likely to be time consuming and difficult.

Modern Records

Starting in 1906, copies of naturalization papers were collected by the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS). These records include both immigration and naturalization records. They are more standardized than records of previous eras and include the names of spouses and children, whether they were citizens or not. INS immigration records date from 1897 onward.

You can request these files directly. The form needed is G639 and can be requested from your local or regional Immigration and Naturalization Service office or by calling 1-800-870-3676. Verbal information can be sought at 202-514-2607. The more information you have the more likely your ancestor will be identified even if they were not naturalized. There is no cost for the INS record search.

Summary

Records after 1906 for naturalization and 1897 for immigration are held by the INS. You may request copies of these files via mail with form G639.

Early naturalization records (pre 1906) were maintained at various courts in all states. The type of information in these early records is not standard. These files are more difficult to locate because they may be part of records held by numerous judicial entities. In some cases these records have been moved to other repositories. Please visit the National Archives web page on naturalization records for more detail about their holdings.

TROOPS LEAVE

May 29, 1898—the First Regiment left Sioux Falls for San Francisco. All 1008 men of the three Battalions loaded up on the 3 trains for the long ride to the Presidio in Frisco Bay. They were well received by the Red Cross Society and others with treats of green rations and delicacies. Life in camp has changed for no longer are the men free and cordial. Training is very hard and the discipline strict as the whole regiment needs to be hard as steel and ready for any war movement. July 22, 1898—the Regiment has left for the Philippines today on the transports 'Rio Janeiro and Valencia'.

September 12, 1898—the Regiment arrived today and entered Manila Bay.

The First and Third Battalions are to go to San Miguel and the Second Battalion on the Matacauan grounds.
