Submitted by Mr. Elza B. Cox

P.O. Box 186, Southmont, NC 27351-0186

This cemetery is located off State Road 756, Indian Valley District, Floyd County, Virginia, on the late Bennett "Graydon Phillips" farm. The information from this cemetery was documented sometime in the late 1960's, which at that time it was most difficult to find some of the unmarked graves. In the fall of 2001 the cemetery was cleared of all underbrush, the stones that had fallen over were reset and a new fence was erected. Mrs. Lena Hollandsworth Duncan has sent me a listing of those that has helped with the manual labor and others that has helped financially: Edna P. Quesenberry's children, Iressa Q. Fawcett, Rosa Pauline Q. Stout, Winnie Q. Vaughn and Cobem Quesenberry (used his equipment); James K. Akers, Troy B. There are several more rows, some graves marked with native stones and some unmarked, which some people think is where slaves were buried. In the late 1960's when we first copied the cemetery only 43 unidentified graves were located. However since it has been cleaned off there were approximately 75 unmarked graves located.

PREFACE

After the name of the head-of-family, I have listed the number of persons in each age group; males (m) on one line and females (f) on another line, directly under the males. Following the ages is a column headed 'n.n.', which means not naturalised. The census-taker was not required to show the part of the county in which the family lived, but for Botetourt County it is given for most families. I show the Residence last. Below, I have listed some of the abbreviations used to show residence, and their probable meanings.

The will of Elizabeth Garland bears date May 9, 1806, and was probated June 12, 1806.¹⁷

From it we learn they had the following children:

- (1) Edward⁶ Garland,
- (2) Sarah⁶ Garland,
- (3) Lucy⁶ Garland,
- (4) Mary⁶ Garland, who married Copeland Davis. She is mentioned in the will as "Mary Davis." There is in the Lunenburg County, Virginia, Clerk's Office, a letter of consent, dated November 28(?), 1791, from Sam. Garland, consenting to the marriage of his daughter "Polly Garland" to Copeland Davis; and the marriage bond for the marriage of Copeland Davis and Polly Garland is dated November 21, 1791.¹⁸

They had three children:

- I. Nicholas Edmunds⁷ Davis (b. Oct. 16, 1772).
- II. Maria⁷ Davis, and
- III. Eliza⁷ Davis.

Maria⁷ Davis married John Flood Lewis, son of Benjamin Lewis and Lucy Gray Edmunds, and had one son only, Nicholas Edmunds⁸ Lewis, who died unmarried.

- I. Nicholas Edmunds⁷ Davis (b. Oct. 16, 1772), married twice. The first wife was Amanda Lewis, daughter of Benjamin Lewis, who married March, 1787, Lucy Gray Edmunds. He married, secondly, Eliza Lewis P. Lampkin (b. Dec. 23, 1807, d. Jan. 11, 1867), and by this second marriage had:

(aa) Mary Jane⁸ Davis (b. April 30, 1830, d. June, 1900), married Nov. 10, 1853, Dr. Edmund W. Wilkins, son of Dr. William Webb Wilkins (whose wife was Mary F. Beasley), and had:

- (I) Ashley⁰ Wilkins, who married Mary T. Pugh. (No issue.)

¹⁷It is of record in Lunenburg County, Virginia, in W. B. 6, pages 15/152.

DAVIS EXCURSUS.

The destruction of the Prince George County and Dinwiddie County records probably makes impossible an adequate account of the Davis family which was closely allied with the Garland family.

Copeland¹ Davis, the elder, died before November, 1768, for •Jin the chancery suit in Lunenburg County, Virginia, of Peter I Stainback and Mary C., his wife, Thomas Hamlin, guardian of y Ashley Davis, deed., v. Jane Scott, widow and executrix of James jSScott, deed., it appears that the inventory of the personal estate of Copeland Davis was made in November, 1768.

In this case there is an allegation that Copeland Davis died Sint estate, and another allegation that Jane Davis, his widow, ^became executrix of his estate. This latter allegation is profitably an error ; for no will is otherwise referred to,—and the Kact is she probably qualified as his administratrix, instead of Kis executrix.

I Copeland¹ Davis left only two children:

- (1) Ashley² Davis, his eldest son, who was doubtless the Ashley Davis who married Mary Cross, daughter of John Cross,²² and had:

W. iv

²²There is in Lunenburg County, the M. B. dated Dec. 17, 1785, for the ■marriage of Ashley Davis and Mary Cross—The Old Free State, II, 389; Knd there is a certificate of consent from John Cross for the marriage of / his daughter Mary Cross to Ashley Davis. This seems to be dated Dec. 16, 1781. The clerk has evidently misread, either the date of the M. B. or of the certificate. 1785, in both cases is probably correct.

- (a) Mary C.³ Davis who married Peter Stainback.
- (b) Ashley³ Davis,
- (c) Elizabeth³ Davis.

(2) Copeland² Davis, who, as shown above, married Mary Garland.

It appears that after the death of Copeland Davis, the elder, his widow Jane Davis, married James Scott; that James Scott became the guardian of the children Ashley Davis and Copeland Davis, by appointment of the Court in the County of Dinwiddie.

The estate which thus passed into his hands was relatively large; and the suit above mentioned was brought, undertaking to establish that he had squandered and appropriated to his own use the proceeds and income of the estate which belonged to the wards. The final result of the suit is not clear due to the loss of the files, or a part of the files of the papers.

Ashley Davis seems to have died intestate and his widow, Mary Davis, qualified as his administratrix; and in an answer which she filed March 14, 1794, in a suit brought against her by Dyer Phillips, she states that Ashley Davis died November 3, 1790.

At July Court, 1804, Edward Garland qualified as the Administrator of Copeland Davis, deed. (Lunenburg Co., Va., O. B. 19, page 150).

Captain Samuel Garland died intestate, and he left at least the following children:

- 1. Mary Garland who married Copeland Davis.
- 2. Sarah Garland,
- 3. Lucy Garland,
- 4. Elizabeth Garland, who married David Dunn.

Some light is shed upon the family relationship by a suit in Lunenburg County, Virginia, in which an order was entered August 15, 1806 (O. B. 20, page 81), of Mary Davis (who married Copeland Davis), Sarah Garland and Lucy Garland against Eliza Dunn, infant of Elizabeth Dunn, deed.

In this suit, commissioners to divide land filed a report Jan. 8, 1807 (O. B. 20, p. 121), assigned certain parcels to Eliza Dunn, Lucy Garland, Mary Garland and Mary Davis.

On June 8, 1809 (O. B. 20, p. 378-9), there was an order entered in a suit brought by Mary Davis against John Taylor, admr. of Copeland Davis, Nicholas Davis, Eliza Davis, Jane Davis and Maria Davis, confirming an award made January 13, 1807, assigning Mary Davis widow of Copeland Davis 429 acres, part of 925 acres of land on both sides of Flat Rock Creek, as her dower in all the lands of Copeland Davis.

- 5. Edward⁵ Garland, Captain in the Revolution.²³ A roll of his Company as it existed July 3, 1777, is printed in The Old Free State.²⁴ He represented Lunenburg County in the General Assembly in 1787 and 1788.²⁵ His will was dated Nov. 17, 1788, and was probated June 9, 1791.²⁶ He seems to have died unmarried, as his will mentions only his brothers Samuel Garland and John Garland and names them executors.
- 6. John⁵ Garland. (Descendants not traced.)
- 7. William Terrell⁵ Garland, who married (M. B. in Lunenburg County, Va., dated Dec. 29, 1786),²⁷ Martha Broadnax (Brodnax).
- 8. Peter⁵ Garland, Captain in the Revolution.²⁸ * Representative of Lunenburg County in the Legislature, 1794.²⁰

There is a record of the children of Peter Garland, Captain in the Revolutionary War,³⁰ doubtless the above Peter⁵ Garland, as follows:

David⁰ - Garland,
John⁶ Garland,
Mary⁶ Garland,
Susanna T.^o Garland,
Garland⁶ Garland,

CURETON.

John Cureton, the vestryman of Cumberland Parish 1784 to, 1786, was a soldier of the Revolution. He was an Ensign, in the Company of Captain Edward Jordan, from Lunenburg County, Virginia.¹¹⁰ He married (M. B. in Lunenburg Co., Va., dated March 14, 1783), Hannah Davis.¹¹⁷

The records of Bristol Parish contain a number of items respecting the Cureton family and those of Lunenburg are thought to have been from that section—from Prince George County.

From the Parish Register of Bristol Parish, it appears that John¹ Cureton and his wife Frances had:

1. Susanna² Cureton (b. Jan. 19, 17(), probably 1724).
2. Eliza.² Cureton (b. Jan. 20, 1796).
3. John² Cureton (b. Sept. 27, 1731).

John² Cureton, it seems married Winifred (last name unknown), and had:

1. John³ Cureton (b. Nov. 13, 1757).
2. Louisey³ Cureton (b. Jan. 28, 1760).
3. Frances³ Cureton (b. Dec. 13, 1762).
4. Charles³ Cureton (b. Sept. 20, 1765).

It was doubtless this John³ Cureton who was the Revolutionary soldier from Lunenburg County, Virginia, and a Vestryman of Cumberland Parish.

Certificates of consent filed in connection with the issuance of marriage license bonds in Lunenburg County, Virginia, indicate the following marriages:

John Cureton to Sarah Moon, daughter of Gideon Moon, certificate dated December 17, 1778.

Nathaniel Cureton to Elizabeth Esthem, certificate dated May 4, 1795.

¹¹⁰*The Old Free State*, I, 267.

¹¹⁷*The Old Free State*, II, 395. The name is there given as "John Curlton," instead of "John Cureton." As there given the writer followed a certified abstract of the marriage bonds, made by the Clerk of the County; but investigation convinces him that the name was incorrectly deciphered. Some of these old documents are very difficult to read with certainty.

DELONY.

■ Lewis Delony, the Vestryman in 1747 and 1748, was one of the members of the first bench of Justices of the County of Lunenburg. He was present at the first meeting, May 5, 1746, when the County was organized,¹¹⁸ and he was one of the two Justices authorized to administer on that occasion the oath of office to the other Justices.¹¹⁹

He and Thomas Lanier (Lanear), were appointed commissioners, on the part of Lunenburg County, to run the dividing line between Lunenburg and Brunswick Counties.¹²⁰

At that time he resided in the part of the county afterwards to be cut off into Mecklenburg County, in the neighborhood of Roanoke River and Allen Creek.

He drew the plans for the first Courthouse of Lunenburg County; built the first prison or jail of the County, and built an "office in the Courthouse and a press for the safe keeping and preservation of the Law Books, Papers and Records" to be preserved there.¹²¹

Henry Delony, Justice of the County Court of Lunenburg County, Virginia, from 1757 to 1763,¹²² was one of the first Justices of Mecklenburg County, and attended the first court held in the County, on March 11, 1765,¹²³ and helped to organize that county.

On September 8, 1777, he was recommended to the Governor to be Colonel in the "Second Battalion,"¹²⁴ though he probably did not serve in that capacity, at that time, for on October 13, 1777, the order of September 8, 1777, was set aside, and new recommendations made, and on this occasion Bennett Goode was recommended to be Colonel in the Second Battalion.¹²⁵ He however never served in the Revolution in some capacity.¹²⁰

This copy of the 1810 Wythe County, Virginia Census was made from microfilm. Where omissions were made on the list, omissions were made here. Census takers apparently used phonetic spelling in most cases, therefore original spelling was used as far as could be determined. Where some names could not be determined a question mark is used, however part of some names were included to give help to those searching for a certain name.

Columns are headed as follows:

1. Free white males under 10 years of age
2. ti ii " 10 years and under 16
3. ii it it 16 " H II 26 including heads of families

INTRODUCTIO N

The 1840 WASHINGTON COUNTY, VIRGINIA Census was taken from reel M-704-579 of the Federal Census records. This is transcribed as it was written on the microfilm.
In this record, there is a partial alphabetical arrangement in that all of the names that begin with "A" are grouped together and all of the surnames that begin with "B", etc. The names are not in alphabetical order in a strict sense, most of the name grouping are fairly short, we have not provided the reader with an index as you would spend almost as much time looking the names up as you would in trying to read the entire list.

The town of Abingdon is listed separately on pages 19-20 and on page 20, you will find the listing of those living at the time of the census who had served in the Revolutionary War and other military service at the time of October 29, 1790. Given is their age in years also with all of them above 80 years old and under 100.

■ numbers following each name represent the ages and number of male and female living in the household at the time of the census. Using the chart at the end of the book, you will be able to plot the ages and number of children and adults at the time. The hyphen represents the break between the males to the left and female right. With thirteen columns in each sex range, the empty spaces to the right of the last number have been eliminated.
